

Regent London Christmas Course

Now that Autumn is here, it gives our focused students the perfect opportunity to take advantage of this quieter period. Our aim is to allow students to reach their academic goals through the quality tuition and coaching they'll receive. At Regent London, we believe in academic excellence. We don't just want to teach, we want to transform our students by allowing them to flourish not just within the classroom, but also through our exciting social programme.

As always we are open throughout the Christmas period (not Monday 26th December), allowing students to make the most of their Christmas break. Throughout the festive period we will be offering all of our year-round courses – English World, IELTS Preparation, Executive ClasSIX and Individual Tuition.

Christmas in London

London's Christmas celebrations draw in over 50,000 tourists each year, all eager to join in the special atmosphere that surrounds the city in December.

With traditional Christmas markets, outdoor ice-skating rinks, city wide decorations, musical concerts, pantomimes and fabulous Christmas shopping opportunities, London is the perfect destination to enjoy a relaxing week during the festive period.

The Christmas period also means a quieter school and smaller classes– perfect for those who want to make the most of their short winter breaks. Our exciting social programme allows students to experience a true British Christmas and expand their cultural fluency by combining all of the best that London has to offer - the perfect addition to time in the classroom.

Winter Courses

We still have availability on all of our courses for the Christmas period. Here's a reminder of our courses and what they can offer your students.

English World Courses

Our English World courses offer a course designed to improve students' all-round English skills. The course covers all aspects of the English language through a combination of exercises, discussions and debates and research.

IELTS

Our IELTS course aims to give students the best possible platform from which to tackle the IELTS exam. The course is taught by experienced IELTS examiners and offers a course of 25 hours per week, covering all aspects of the IELTS exam. This course is ideal for anyone looking to go on to work or study in the UK.

Executive ClasSIX

Our Executive ClasSIX course offers an accelerated learning programme designed for business professionals. Participants practise and develop their English skills through a range of business-related exercises, role-plays and presentations.

Winter Accommodation

Homestay

Our homestay option allows students to build on their confidence and English skills whilst experiencing all the traditions of a true British Christmas. Students can choose between standard and en-suite rooms. All homestay bookings over the Christmas and New Year weekends will incur a Christmas supplement of £65.

Residence – Nevern House

For those looking for a more independent option, our popular residence located at Earls Court offers single or en-suite rooms. Nevern House allows students to live in the heart of London, just around the corner from a number of shops, supermarkets, bars and restaurants and just a short journey from central London.
